JOIN US ON THE SECOND TUESDAY OF EVERY MONTH
 WE MEET AT 6:30 P.M. AT
 ST. THOMAS EPISCOPL CHURCH
 (1416 NORTH LOOP 1604)

From Your President

Hello Quilters,

What happened to January?! I took a nap and bam the month of January was gone. This year the freezing weather made me thankful I'm retired. I didn't have to get out in the nasty weather. I'm no longer considered essential services. YEAH!

Hopefully the groundhog is wrong this year. The weather the past few days has been wonderful, but I'm not trusting the Texas weather. We could be in for a surprise!!!!

Sorry, I am not going to be at the meeting this month, the Twisted Sisters will be on a Quilt Retreat. We signed up before I was roped into (oops, I mean asked) to be president! I am sure you will be in good hands with Stephanie Cady.

This month we have Susan Baker Logbrink of "Susan Baker Arts" in Hondo, TX. She expresses her art with bold colorful textile collages with an emphasis on native Texas plants and animals. I am sorry to miss her.

Next month we will launching a membership drive. Stay tuned for more details.

Enjoy the meeting and see you next month.

Millie

FEBRUARY

Happy Valentine's Day, Guild members!

This month our guest speaker will be Susan Baker Logrbrink (Susan Baker Arts), from Hondo, Texas. Susan has an MFA in scenic design for theatre, television and film. She worked as a designer and a scenic artist before turning to textiles. As a scenic artist, she worked large and bold because the set is usually about ten to thirty feet away from its first audience member. Small strokes don't have much of a place in that world. When she turned to textiles, she carried a lot of those same techniques into her work even though it was on a smaller scale. "My art expresses the love for that strong, colorful, bold aesthetic through textile collages used to create the main design, and free-motion quilting to add all the finer details." Occasionally she uses some hand embellishment through embroidery and beading. She uses many of these quilting techniques to create dramatic works of fine art, full of detail and subtlety that give depth and make the viewer want to stop and spend time searching out all of the many nuances of the piece. She draws on inspiration from her own life experiences and observations and also from nature, with an emphasis on the amazing native plants and animals in Texas.

For the March Program we will have another local quilter, Louann Fisher, from Seguin. She has combined One Block Wonder block with panels for a beautiful new take on panel quilts!

Also in March, we will announce a new contest!! So, stay tuned for further information!!

Hugs

CHARITY

Quilters,

Well! I hope you all are doing well. I am loving this warmer weather, and ready to start the Bee and get to making quilts, and I hope you are too. There WILL be a charity bee this month. We received so many great compliments on what we donated. I hope you are all ready to have another great year.

The letter below shows you just how much our quilts and pillows are loved.

Thanks for all your hard work.

Dear Ms. Krepps,

Thank you so much for your donation to SLEW Cancer Wellness Center. Your willingness to help low-income elderly, and disabled cancer patients and survivors in our community weather the crisis in their lives makes all the difference for them and their families. During these trying times, our clients are feeling vulnerable — physically, emotionally, and financially. Your donation of handmade quilts will go towards efforts to help stabilize their lives in a very profound way.

Thanks to donors like you, we were able to provide 10,000 services to those suffering from depression, anxiety, or simply needing a wig, or prostheses to feel whole again. All this greatly improves their quality of life. Thank you so much for making a valuable donation for our clients in need. We look forward to your continued support.

Donations from caring people like you really do make a difference to us!

Sincerely,

Olga Young

FUNNIES

Got up at 5 am, ran 4 miles came back, made a vegetable smoothie for breakfast, did 2 loads of laundry, mopped and vacuumed floors! ...and that's all I remember about my dream...

A lady never discusses the size of her fabric stash

TEN COMMANDMENTS FOR SENIORS

1. Talk to yourself. There are times when you need expert advice.
  2. "In style" are the clothes that still fit.
  3. You don't need anger management. You need people to stop irritating you.
  4. Your people skills are just fine. It's your tolerance for idiots that needs work.
  5. The biggest lie you tell yourself is: "I don't need to write that down. I'll remember it."
  6. "On time" is when you get there.
  7. You've noticed people your age are much older than you.
  8. Ageing has slowed you down, but it hasn't shut you up.
  9. You still haven't learned to act your age and I hope you never will.
  10. "One for the road" means peeing before you leave the house.
